YOU ARE A STUDENT OF ECONOMICS

Dialogue

Teacher: Good morning, students!

Students: Good morning.

Teacher: I'm your teacher of English. My name is Olga Pavlovna. And what are your names, please?

Student A: My name is Peter Novikov.

Student B: And I am Mike Pilov.

Teacher: Very good. Are you happy that you are students of economics now?

Students: Yes, we are.

Student C: As to me, I'm very happy to be a student of this University. When I finished school I wanted to enter this particular University, and no other.

Teacher: By the way, did you study economics at school?

Student C: No, I didn't. I studied only the economy of Russia.

Student C: But we studied the economy of Great Britain too.

Teacher: Was it an ordinary or specialized school?

Student C: It was a specialized school. We studied a few subjects in English.

Teacher: Very good. Now let's start our first English lesson at the University!
